Clients rely on Dan Riley to help them execute their most important corporate transactions, remarking that his familiarity with the complexities of major deals provides them a combination of cutting-edge legal expertise and practical business judgment. He is viewed as a versatile corporate lawyer who counsels clients on a wide range of transactional and corporate law matters, though his practice is primarily focused on private equity and growth equity transactions.

Over the years, Dan has advised on investments and acquisitions on behalf of sophisticated global middle-market investment funds, including Great Hill Partners, BV Investment Partners, Long Ridge Equity Partners, and Cove Hill Partners, as well as their portfolio companies, like SecureLink, Broadway Technology, RafterOne, and Auvik.

In addition to private equity buyout and growth equity deals, Dan is frequently called on to represent underwriters and investors in connection with public and private debt and equity securities offerings.

Prior to law school, Dan served as an information technology officer and oceanography officer in the U.S. Navy.
