

Dylan Rogalin

Senior Associate

T (617) 248-4840
drogalin@choate.com

Practice Areas

Private Equity

Education

Columbia Law School
JD (2019) with honors
Staff Editor, Columbia Law Review

Boston College
BA (2016) with honors

Admissions

Massachusetts
New York

Dylan Rogalin represents public and private companies, including private equity funds and strategic investors, in connection with mergers and acquisitions, cross-border acquisitions, growth equity investments, corporate governance, and other general corporate matters. He has experience in a wide range of industries, including technology.

Representative Engagements

- Spectrum Equity in the sale of Teacher Pay Teachers to IXL Learning.
- Serent Capital in its investment in LinkIt!, a K-12 software company dedicated to improving student performance through the efficient use of data.
- Sequoia Consulting Group, a portfolio company of Riverside Partners, in its acquisition of 42 North Solutions.
- Sverica Capital in the sale of iWave Information Systems to Incline Equity.
- Cultivate Next, a venture fund formed by Chipotle, in its investment in Vebu, Inc.