Hugh Scott handles complex litigation of all types and is an experienced trial lawyer. He served as head of the firm's Litigation Department for most of the 1990s.

Hugh has been recognized in Chambers USA, and The Legal 500 as a leading lawyer for Insurance, and has been named a Massachusetts Super Lawyer. He was also one of only 11 insurance industry attorneys recognized as a "2013 Client Service All Star" by The BTI Consulting Group, an honor that annually identifies – through feedback from more than 240 general counsel – a select group of attorneys who display an outstanding commitment to client service excellence. He was also named the 2014 Boston "Lawyer of the Year" for Insurance Law by Best Lawyers.

Representative Engagements

- Served as lead trial counsel defending major national insurance company against claims for nationwide environmental pollution coverage in lengthy jury trial that resulted in directed verdict for insurers.
- Served as lead appellate counsel for major national insurer in Wellington ADR appeal that succeeded in reversing adverse trial decision that had awarded substantial coverage for asbestos claims.
- Defended major Boston bank in criminal jury trial that resulted in directed verdict on fraud charges but conviction on lesser regulatory charges.
- Represented Fortune 500 company in favorable settlement of groundbreaking criminal environmental charges.
- Tried Massachusetts Appellate Tax Board case that resulted in largest individual income tax refund in state ($47 million).
- Defended major national commodities brokerage against nationwide class action fraud case, reaching successful settlement for company.
- Prosecuted and convicted Chairman of Massachusetts Senate Ways and Means Committee of extortion in lengthy criminal jury trial.
