Elizabeth Pion advises the portfolio companies of private equity clients on day-to-day legal matters for their businesses. She helps clients with a wide range of tasks, including employment and equity agreements for management and advisors, general corporate governance, commercial agreements, non-disclosure agreements, post-closing work and exit preparation.

Elizabeth works with a wide range of clients, but has particular experience in the technology and healthcare industries. Through her prior experience at Choate as a Senior Associate focused on M&A transactions, Elizabeth has a deep understanding of what matters to private equity sponsors and how they can prepare their portfolio companies for successful exits.
